

Saver Street Coach Contractor Opportunity

Saver Street Coaching and Education is delighted to interview coaches who are interested in serving the Christian community in the following areas:

- Financial Coaching
- Career Coaching
- Executive Coaching
- Leadership Development
- Spiritual Direction Coaching
- Business Coaching
- Life Coaching

Each of our partner coaches is sponsored with the following:

- CoachAccountable account
- Gmail account
- Free training, coaching, and supervision
- Preset programs and courses for clients

What We Do For You

Here's the deal.

You want to coach. You don't want to do sales or marketing.

We want to do marketing and sales. We love hosting podcasts, reaching out to customers, and holding sales calls. We also love connecting with Christians and seeing their progress over time.

We love supporting coaches through development and training.

We ABSOLUTELY love when Christians get closer to Christ and start sharing the gospel more and more.

Sooooooooooooo, can we pay you to coach?

We'll do the marketing and the sales. We'll provide training. We'll even pay you to join us in podcasting and writing articles. Pick what you enjoy and we'll pay you for it (as long as we need it done).

The Pay Structure

The pay is dependent on three things:

- How many clients we can give you
- Your available hours
- Your credentials

We're currently a fledgling company and are working on getting more leads. They're coming right in. As they come in, we'll send closed clients to you. You have to have availability to take them.

We chose to base pay on credentials because it allows us confidence in your staying power as a coach and because we share a similar coaching philosophy and approach for clients. It gives us confidence that you'll treat your Saver Street clients in a similar way we would.

For every additional 5 hours you coach per week, your pay rate goes up. Below you'll find the pay rate for each credential level.

Our starting pay ranges from $50 to $100 per hour depending on credential or degree. See below for more details.

All coaches must complete our free coach training to Saver Street's satisfaction and pass the interview stage before being accepted as a contractor coach.

*We provide equal consideration to coaches with an applicable Masters or Doctorate degree, as long as the degree is in a related field. This is at our sole discretion.

We cannot guarantee any number of hours or clients. It's all subject to availability. If you'd like to help us increase the number of clients, we're also looking for coaches to help us with brand-building activities.

We Also Pay for Brand-Building Activities

To those who are interested, we also pay for particular activities that help build the Saver Street brand. All you have to do is show up. We take care of all the administrative stuff involved and pay you for each agreed-upon contribution.

Saver Street is looking for:

- Podcast co-hosts who want to be on the podcast weekly
- Podcast guests who want to be on the podcast occasionally
- Blog and article writers and editors
- Curriculum and program designers

We understand that your primary calling is coaching. That's amazing. If you feel inclined to do any other activities as well, we'd love to chat.

Application Process
